

The Rooted Table – A Farm-to-Table (casual) Invitation

Good evening, friends! I am so excited to share an experience that is truly special—an evening that celebrates fresh, locally sourced ingredients, community connections, and the beauty of sharing a meal together. I invite you to join us for The Rooted Table, a one-of-a-kind farm-to-table dining experience hosted at the beautiful Reitano Vineyards.

This is more than just dinner—it's a celebration of the farmers, artisans, and small businesses that make up the heart of our local food community. With the helping hands of Hands of the Earth, LLC, we are curating a multi-course feast that showcases the best of what our region has to offer. Every dish will be crafted with intention, featuring ingredients grown and harvested by passionate farmers and prepared to bring out their best flavors. And of course, no evening at Reitano Vineyards would be complete without our incredible wines, perfectly paired to enhance every course.

By joining us at The Rooted Table, you are not just treating yourself to an unforgettable evening—you are also supporting small farms and vendors, ensuring they continue to thrive and nourish our communities.

Spaces are limited, so don't miss the opportunity to be part of this extraordinary gathering. Bring your appetite, bring your friends, and come ready to savor the richness of local food, fine wine, and great company.

Reserve your seat today, and we'll see you at The Rooted Table! Cheers!
